Who in your network of partners and suppliers are required to make your social enterprise work?

What are the most important things your social enterprise must do in order to work?

What is the value your social enterprise offers?

How do you market your social enterprise to potential users?

How do you communicate with your current users to deliver your social enterprise?

Who are the different user groups that your social enterprise aims to reach?